

EQUINE CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Is it your dream to work with horses? There are so many possibilities for you to pursue a career in the equine industry ranging from working directly with horses every day to less direct, peripheral positions. Which job is for you?

Hands-On Roles	Support Roles
Barn Manager Caretaker/Groom Driver* Exercise Rider  Hot Walker Jockey  Racetrack Outrider Trainer/Assistant Trainer Track Veterinarian	Admissions Bookkeeper Facility Manager (training, breeding) Facility Owner (training, breeding) Horse Breeder Maintenance Mutual Teller Photographer/Videographer Racing Secretary Racetrack Starter Racing Steward/Judge Security Guard Server Track Announcer
*Standardbred Racing Quarter Horse & Thoroughbred Racing

Hands-On Roles	Support Roles
Barn Manager Caretaker/Groom Coach/Instructor Trainer	Announcer Course Designer Facility Manager (riding school, boarding) Facility Owner (riding school, boarding) Judge/Steward Ring Master Show Secretary Whipper-in

Hands-On Roles
Equine Chiropractic Equine Dental Technician Equine Nutritionist Equine Veterinarian Equine Veterinary Technician Farrier (Blacksmith) Massage Therapist Saddle Fitter

Hands-On Roles	Support Roles
Barn Manager Bloodstock Agent Boarding Stable Owner Broodmare Manager Groom/Caretaker Horse Breeder Horse Farm Manager Riding Stable Owner	Equine Pedigree Analyst

Support Roles
Accountant Equine Product Sales Representative (equipment, facility building, pharmaceuticals, feed, tack, insurance) Journalist/Writer Photographer/Videographer Tack Shop Owner Various Jobs at Equine Associations (manager, marketing, support)

Support Roles
Lab Tech Researcher/Assistant Researcher (animal health and nutrition companies, universities) University/College Position (faculty positions, research jobs, graduate student positions)

Destined for a career in the horse industry? Investigate training and educational pathways to help you along the way. Explore the many educational offerings of Equine Guelph's award-winning online programs at TheHorsePortal.ca